

Rock Hill, SC

Piedmont Medical Center is a 288-bed Trauma Level III full-service hospital in Rock Hill, South Carolina providing a wide range of medical care, an extensive network of experienced physicians and nurses, and some of the most innovative technology and equipment available today. Piedmont has been awarded an "A" Grade Hospital Safety Score 5 times in a row, an elite designation from The Leapfrog Group, and has been recognized for Cardiac and Stroke Care with several Get with the Guidelines Gold Plus Achievement Awards.

Services:

- Cancer care programs
- Imaging
- Neurological treatment and help
- Heart care
- Pediatrics
- Orthopedics
- Women's health
- Pregnancy and childbirth
- Rehabilitation
- Surgical care
- Emergency care and procedures
-

Please note that there is a considerable amount of commuting at the Piedmont site. Rotations are located in Rock Hill, Fort Mill, York, Chester, Lancaster, Indian Land and across the state line in Gastonia, coordinator to tour the hospital before their first rotation begins as well attend a casual informational dinner hosted by the DSME and Site Coordinator. 4th year students will complete the orientation forms online and get the drug screen at a location convenient to where they are rotating if they are unable to visit Piedmont.