

Edward Via College of Osteopathic Medicine

4th Year Clinical Rotation:

3. Intrinsic sphincteric deficiency
4. "Overflow" incontinence
5. Functional incontinence
6. Urge urinary incontinence
- 7.

2. Demonstrates compassion and respect in patient communications
3. Effective investigation of chief complaint, medical and psycho

8. Identifies the importance to care for underserved populations in a non-judgmental & altruistic manner

g. Osteopathic Manipulative Medicine Components

Students must be familiar with the OMM didactic and workshop requirements for their OMS-4 year as described in the Osteopathic Manipulative Medicine website.